

Schedule of Events for
EARTH DAY ON THE BAY!

April 19th, 2008 @ MSI

On the Land side:

Mudd!!

Join us at the Dock and dig into the Benthic Zone!

9am, 1:15 pm

Plankton T.V.

Catch and watch your much loved plankton on our giant 10' screen!

9am

San Francisco Ocean Film Festival

Oil Spill in San Francisco Bay 2007 Documentary

10:00am; 3:00pm

Touch Tank

It's hands-on time with intertidal animals with all of your favorites! You can find us at the Aquarium.

10:15am, 1:45pm

Earthcapades Environmental Vaudeville

Learn about Protecting the Environment with juggling, unicycling & more!

11:00am; 2:30pm

Shark Feeding

See our beautiful Leopard Sharks at the Aquarium.

11:00 am

Fish Seine

Do you want to catch some amazing sea swimmers? Then you need to come and meet us at the Beach to catch some fish!

11:30am, 3:30 pm

Music by the Banana Slug String Band

12 pm

Hawaiian Hula Dance!

Kilohana's friends Keolaulani O Lapa O Laka is a young professional hula troupe. Main Stage.

2:15pm

AND on the water.....

Robert G. Brownlee Discovery Voyages

A two-hour trip on the Bay you'll be sure to remember!
(Pre-Reservation on-line Required)

8am, 10am, 1pm, 3pm

Save the Bay Canoe Voyages

Help restore Bair Island, the largest undeveloped island in South San Francisco Bay!

9:30am until 3pm

Kilohana Outrigger Canoe Demonstrations

1pm, 1:30pm

Other Scheduled Events for Earth Day on the Bay!

Earth Day Environmental Info Fair

Featuring tables from the following organizations:

Aquarium of the Bay; Romberg Tiburon Center for Environmental Studies; the Marine Mammal Center; NOAA Coast Survey (with their survey vessel!); San Francisco Ocean Film Festival; Al Gore's Climate Project; San Mateo Recycling; California Coastal Commission; Lyngso; Cargill; Save the Bay; Farallones National Marine Sanctuary Association, and more!

Lunch

(provided by Café N.S.)

11:00am-2:00pm

Green Wine Tasting

It's time to wine for a good cause!

11:00am - 3:00 pm

Ocean Crafts

Come and let your imagination run wild while you do crafts in the Annex!

All day